Why hold this conference?

As the number of elderly Australians in care increases, so do the ethical issues in the Aged Care Sector – at home, in public and private residential care centres, both for profit and not-for-profit. It is time these issues were discussed in an appropriate forum.

Who could benefit from this conference?

All staff who care for the aged in any setting and in any capacity – carers, health professionals, support staff, chaplains, pastoral care workers, director and managers, officers of the Department of Aged and Community Care.
